It is accepted that nothing other than Quran has been in the focus people have disagreed whether the ijaz is textual or in Nazm, ... Selaf

One aspect is that it is the domain of Salafis it is said that it has limited use of literary devices which is more than often eg limit: 25 devices

Is it possible to objectively measure the use of Salafis in the Quran and compare it with so that this is

As far as I can see there is no way to objectively compare the Salafist's one text with theirs as the

The objective is to create a way of objectively measuring Salafis in any text.

↳ Review the lit to identify the elements Salafis
↳ Create a scoring system that incorporates ↳ Relative network weightings
↳ The idea is to create Salafi density score for any given text.

Who are the experts? And your expert?

↳ validation → Test it with Relative network and their Salafis scores
